A Sample of Investigations & Arrests

On July 8, 2022 at 8:37am, a North Plainfield officer on routine patrol observed a 2006 Honda Odyssey traveling at a high rate of speed east on Greenbrook Road in the area of Rockview Terrace. The officer closed the distance and attempted to conduct a motor vehicle stop, but the driver refused to stop. After the officer terminated his efforts to stop the motor vehicle in the area of Somerset Street and Front Street in Plainfield, the vehicle continued south into Plainfield. A short time later at 9:03am, the Plainfield Police notified Headquarters that the same vehicle was involved in a pedestrian struck and an officer involved shooting in the area of West Front Street and Central Avenue. North Plainfield Police units and detectives were dispatched to the area to assist with traffic control and securing the scene. Detectives are conducting a follow-up investigation which still continues.

NORTH PLAINFIELD POLICE JULY 2022 MONTHLY REPORT

On July 18, 2022 at 9:37am, patrol responded to the Asian Food Market on Route 22 for a report of an assault. The manager reported that an employee got into a physical altercation with a customer when the customer attempted to use a men's room that the employee was cleaning. According to the customer, when he tried to use the bathroom, the employee slammed the door in his face. When the customer attempted to open the door again the suspect poked him in the neck with a mop handle. Another brief altercation took place as the customer was seeking assistance. The employee left the scene prior to police arrival. The customer had no injuries and he was explained the complaint procedure.

On July 23, 2022 at 12:38pm, North Plainfield Police received word that a popup party was going to be held at an address on the East side of North Plainfield. The flyers, which have been posted on websites for preceding weeks, mentioned a party in the North Plainfield area, but withheld the address up until the date of the party. Tickets to the party were being sold and it appeared that alcohol was going to be served for a dollar amount through packages that were being offered. As soon as the initial flyers were observed, detectives began collaborating with the Somerset County Prosecutor's Office to prepare for charges and what evidence would have to be obtained to support those charges. When the detective received the alert that included the address, the detective was sent to the party undercover, purchased a ticket, and was served alcohol. A search warrant was then obtained and executed by the police department. Alcohol was being sold and served at the party and the party was shut down. Evidence, including cash and alcoholic beverages were seized, and the homeowner was charged with illegal sale of alcohol and maintaining a nuisance.

NOTE: We are required by the Rules of Court to include herein a statement explaining that the charges are merely an accusation and that the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
