CID Monthly Report

A Sample of Investigations & Arrests

On April 3, 2024, a borough resident came to headquarters and reported that on March 26, 2024 he was on Facebook Marketplace and was attempting to purchase 2 wrestling tickets. He agreed to purchase 2 tickets for $1,000.00 from an unknown male subject and paid him via Zelle. Continuing with the chat throughout the week, another unknown subject joined in and said if he wants the tickets he needs to pay more money. The victim paid an additional $2,500.00 through the Zelle account and $2,850.00 through an Apple Pay account, totaling $6,350.00. The victim never received the tickets and at this point he believes this is a scam so he decided to stop payment to these unknown individuals.

On Monday, April 8, 2024 at 1248 hrs., patrol responded to the area of Race Street and Watchung Avenue on a report of a parking complaint. While on scene, a male approached the officer and reported that he was robbed at gun point over the weekend. The victim, a Plainfield resident, said that on Saturday, April 6, 2024, two unknown males robbed him at gun point. He said he parked his BMW in the area of Fairview Avenue just after 11:00 pm. While sitting in the driver seat of his vehicle and talking on the phone, two Hispanic males wearing dark clothing and masks covering their faces, approached his vehicle from the rear and one of the males pointed what he believes to be a handgun at his temple. One male suspect exclaimed "don't look at me" and proceeded to go through his front pants pocket, removing $500.00 in cash. The males then fled on foot in an unknown direction. He did not call the police because he was scared. CID was notified and is investigating.

On April 29, 2024 at 2135 hrs., two residents of the borough, a husband and wife, came to headquarters and reported that at 1625 hrs., they received a call from an unknown number and the female caller identified herself as an "Immigration Officer". The female spoke to her in Spanish and advised that she had been issued a $1,800.00 fine. The victim was instructed by the female to contact another "officer" at a different number for instructions. The victim did as she was told and called another alleged "officer". The "officer" told the victim that she must send $900.00 via MoneyGram and $900.00 via Western Union to a person and phone number in Lima, Peru. The victim complied and sent the money, a picture of both money wire confirmations, and called the fake officer back. The victim's husband was suspicious that this was fraud and told his wife. The fake officers then told the victims that they were just issued a $900.00 fee for the comment and that they would take away his work permit and call DCPD and have his daughters taken away. He then called his lawyer who told him that he was scammed.
