The North Plainfield Police Department is pleased to announce their annual National Night Out Against Crime Celebration and Public Safety Vehicle Expo Tuesday, August 1, from 6:00pm to 8:00pm in the municipal parking lot across from Borough Hall, at 263 Somerset Street, North Plainfield.

Plans include a display of Public Safety Emergency Equipment from the North Plainfield Police and Fire Departments.

Handouts and pamphlets will be available on topics such as domestic violence, gang awareness, identity theft, block watch associations, crime prevention, and LEAD.

A document shredding truck will be on site, courtesy of Safeguard Document Shredding of Manalapan, New Jersey. Borough residents will be permitted to bring at no cost two shopping bags of private paper they would like shredded to safeguard against identity theft.

There will be music and face painting.

There will also be several community organizations on hand such as, the North Plainfield Library and the North Plainfield Municipal Alliance and Youth Services Committees.

All residents are invited to attend and meet with the Mayor and our First Responders. The North Plainfield PBA will be hosting a barbeque with free hot dogs, hamburgers, Italian ices and sodas for all in attendance.

National Night Out is sponsored by the National Association of Town Watches.

The event is expected to attract more than 30 million people nationwide.

The idea of the program has evolved into fostering a partnership between local law enforcement and the community residents. By working in concert, crime can be reduced and the quality of life that our community enjoys improved.
